

The singer

I have to, there is no other choice
The world is penetrating into me
As if mine was the only voice
As if without me no one could see

I have to stand it, take it on myself
Wrap it in lyrics, tell the tale
To the world, which doesn't know itself
Hoping that I will not fail

I have to, there is no other choice
Melodies of joy and fear
As if mine was the only voice
As if without me no one could hear

I have to stand it, take it on myself
Wrap it in lyrics, tell the tale
To the world, which doesn't know itself
Hoping that I will not fail

Have to scream and shout
Let it all out
Break the silence with my words
Mmhh mmhh
Break it with words
